

POSITION: SPEECH-LANGUAGE
PATHOLOGIST

FULL TIME

The All Ears! Listening and Spoken Language (LSL) Team is passionate about guiding and coaching parents to help their children attain their full potentials by reaching optimal spoken language outcomes, lifelong literacy, and independence. We believe that children who are deaf and hard of hearing can learn to listen and speak as they develop alongside their typical hearing peers. Our team is leading the way in achieving early detection, appropriate amplification with hearing aids and/or cochlear implants, and the continued collaboration between Listening and Spoken Language Interventionists and Pediatric Audiologists.

SUMMARY: We are looking for a full time Speech-Language Pathologist (or Clinical Fellow) to join our team in LSL Intervention Services Clinic. In this position, we need someone who is passionate about working with children and their caregivers. This team member must also be flexible and adaptable, able to work in a fast-paced environment as we grow our speech clinic, audiology clinic, and school.

EDUCATION and EXPERIENCE:

- Master's degree (or Clinical Fellow)
- Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language Hearing Association
- Valid State License

* Preferred – Experience with Listening and Spoken Language strategies and techniques. If no experience, MUST be willing to learn.

BENEFITS:

- Comprehensive benefits package including
 - Medical
 - Dental
 - Vision
 - Disability
- 401 K
- Paid Time Off
- Professional Development
- And MORE!

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provides high quality evaluations and interpretation of assessment results.
- Provides high quality intervention services with active caregiver coaching and education.
- Provides compassionate counseling as needs in diagnostic intervention are identified.
- Collaborates with other team members on an ongoing and professional basis.
- Completes continuing education for licensure, CCCs, and professional development.
- Commits to being mentored to certification, if not already LSLS, Certified AVT.
- Observes and initiates areas for improvement with input from direct supervisor.
- Reports directly to the LSL Intervention Director
