

Job Title: Listening and Spoken Language Teacher

Position Information:

Full Time

Follow Conroe ISD, Montgomery County Texas Academic Calendar

Competitive starting salary determined by education and experience, relocation incentives and sign-on bonus negotiable

LSL AVEd Certification Mentorship included

Education and Experience:

- Master's degree in Deaf Education preferred, Bachelor's degree required in Deaf Education, Early Childhood or Communication Disorders from an accredited institution
- Valid Texas teaching certificate OR eligibility to obtain one in first year LSL Cert. AVEd/AVT or willingness to obtain within 5 years of employment (mentoring provided)
- Early Childhood experience preferred

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Plan and implement daily lessons, utilizing listening and spoken language strategies and techniques for students between 18 months and 6 years of age
- Responsible for safety and care of students; may include diaper changing Perform daily listening checks and troubleshoot when needed
- Coordinate, plan and schedule with The Early Learning Program staff in order to mainstream to the fullest extent possible
- Facilitate communication goals in the mainstream classroom and carryover for home
- Administer appropriate evaluations and write individualized student goals
- Take, analyze and plot language samples on CASLLS or TASLS (with training) Maintain documentation for student attendance, goals, evaluations and progress notes
- Communicate effectively with parents regarding progress and goals Plan and select appropriate duties for teaching assistant
- Supervise volunteers in the classroom
- Provide a supportive, warm, loving, fun, age appropriate classroom environment Attend Staff meetings and professional development
- Participate in development and fundraising activities Other duties as assigned

Physical Demands:

- Sit in low chairs or on the floor, stand for extended periods of time and walk 10,000 steps a day, Lift 25 pound objects and 50 pound child
- Use fingers and hands to manipulate small objects such as beads, glue sticks Speak fluent English, hear and have good vision to supervise children Supervise children outside during varying Houston temperatures